10                   NORTHWEST CARBONICS, INC.,

11                   Plaintiff,

16                   Case No. C03-3156L

17                   ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR 18                   DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST
19                   DEFENDANT ELDON PRUITT

20                   On April 14, 2005, plaintiff Northwest Carbonics, Inc. (“Northwest”) filed a motion for 21 default judgment against defendant Eldon Pruitt in the amount of $395,804.12. (Dkt. #38).

22                   The Court issued an order on April 25, 2005 (the “Order”) explaining that Northwest’s
23 motion, and the remainder of the record, contained insufficient information to support a default
24 judgment. The Order stated that if Northwest intended to pursue its motion, it was required to 25 file, within thirty days, a supplemental memorandum providing additional information to cure
26 the identified deficiencies. Despite the Court’s Order, plaintiff has not filed any additional 27 information to support the motion for a default judgment.

28                   Accordingly, the Court DENIES plaintiff’s motion for default judgment against

1 Mr. Pruitt (Dkt. #38).

2
3 DATED this 8th day of June, 2005.
